We are authorized to announce the name of A. J. Hicks as a candidate for the office of County School Commissioner of Taney Co. subject to the will of the people at the school election to be held April 4th, 1899.

M. Fauer, President of France, died on the 16th inst. M. Lambert of the Senate succeeds him.

N. C. General Assembly are trying to disfranchise the negroes. The bill has passed both houses. The avowed object is to eliminate the ignorant negro vote. The whites can all vote, as the bill says any person can vote who was entitled Jan.
1st 1867.—Republican.

The river and harbor bill passed the Senate on the 17th inst. we copy the following from the St. Louis Republican.

For improving Upper White River, Arkansas. An amendment to the House appropriation of $160,000 for lock and dam No. 7 as follows: The Secretary of war may also contract for completion of lock No. 2, according to the project plans and specifications of Captain W. L. Sibert, the cost not to exceed $150,000.

Extension of the Chadwick Branch.

Railroad circles were somewhat agitated yesterday over the assertion made by a civil engineer of the Frisco that it was the intention of the road to extend its line from Chadwick to Harrison through Forsyth, Mo. This will enable the Frisco to reach the heart of the zinc fields which it is the intention to penetrate by the Mackay air line, and the existence of which is really the motive which prompts the promoters to choose that route.
—Fort Smith News Record.

Mr. Bayless and His Plans.

Rodgers, Ark. Feb. 17.—From Mr.
J. M. Bayless, president of the Arkansas & Oklahoma railway company, a whole lot of information relative to the prospective future movements of that lusty baby corporation is obtained. At present the road is completed only 25 miles, connecting the Frisco with the Pittsburg & Gulf, from Rogers to Gravett. The intention is to extend westward into Kansas, making connections so as to reach all northwestern points of prominence, thus affording splendid market. But it is the eastern extension that interests Arkansas more especially. It is proposed to extend through the counties of Benton, Madison, Carroll, Beane, Newton, Marion, Seaway, Van Buren, Cleburn, and White, with Bald Knob as the objective point to connect with the Iron Mountain. The contemplated extension will be 180 miles. This would open up a magnificent mineral, timber, fruit and farming country, and contribute greatly to the development and wealth of the state. President Bayless says that the legislature will donate lands as has been proposed, and the money will be forthcoming to push the road right on.—Ex.

Compulsory Education.

Jefferson City, Feb. 18.—The State labor bill, which is practically a compulsory education measure, was reported favorably in the house today.
It provides that no child under the age of 16 shall be employed under any circumstances in any factory, store or mercantile establishment, nor between the age of 16 and 18 years, unless provided with a certificate showing that the child has attended school for a school year, the year previous to arriving at the age of 16 years.

All boards of health are required to furnish the labor commissioner lists of all the children with such certificates. Shops and factories are required to keep registers showing age, etc., of all children employed.

The bill provides that no female under 21 nor male under 18 shall be employed before 8 a. m. nor after 7 p. m. nor more than 10 hours a day, nor 60 hours a week. Women must be paid as much as men for similar work. Factory or store owners who violate this law may be fined $100 to $500, imprisoned in the county jail one to six months, or both. The bill carries an emergency clause, and it is believed it will easily pass the house.—Springfield Republican.
